STATS

Choose one:

If mankind was able to protect the natural world from the worst excesses of the Fall:

Reach 2, Grasp -1, Sleight 0.

If the ecosystem had to change in strange and unexpected ways to survive the Fall:

Reach 2, Grasp 0, Sleight -1.

If the Fall completely supplanted the original ecosystem with new and alien forms of life:

Reach -1, Grasp 1, Sleight 1.

DOCTRINE

Choose one:

Culpting a New Humanity: When your Family creates or tames a new species, they inherit one of its minor or cosmetic traits.

The Horn of Plenty: anyone else who keeps a surplus from the time you Culture it to the start of the next Age gains Surplus: Recruits.

Nature's Acolytes: So long as your Family members only consume the food and drink they've produced, they will not fall ill or be attacked by mundane wild animals.

LIFESTYLE

Choose one:

Nomadic: Your caravans have several hidden places they visit to retrieve new harvests. Each sanctuary can hide and support your Family for months at a time.

Dispersed: Your Family barter and borrows space in others' land for their cultivations, giving you up-to-date information on the state of other faction's food supply.

Settled: Your Family's farms and facilities are extensive, and can work on the creation of multiple new Surpluses simultaneously.

TRADITIONS

Choose one of each, or invent your own:

Populace: Atavistic throwbacks, a carefully-managed bloodline, a co-op of traders and ranchers.

Style: Bucolic and laconic, sterile and analytic, wild and unrestrained.

Governance: Feudal hierarchy of serfs and landowners, commune of innovators and eccentrics, a pantheon taking on nature's aspects.

LANDMARKS

Draw a sign of one from each on the map, or invent your own:

Before: A cathedral-sized automated slaughterhouse; A plantation of heavily modified trees; Ruins filled with deadly spores.

The Fall: Catacombs filled with failed genetic experiments; A vast forest filled with calcified trees; A tree that outlasted the city it was meant to nurture.

A Threat: A pack of perfectly designed predators; A drought so severe that famine is a certainty; A plague too efficient and dreadful to be natural.

HISTORY

Everyone has a need for your products. Take 1 Treaty on each other Family and Faction. Then ask the other families:

Which of you has made agreements with us that might just end up saving mankind AND the planet? You take 1-Treaty on them.

Which of you supplies us with resources vital for cultivation? Work out what the supplies are and give that Family 1-Treaty on you.

RESOURCES

Pick two as Surpluses, and take the rest as Needs:

Barter Goods, Land, Progress, Medicine, Crops

INHERITANCE

Cultivator Characters get +1 to Sway or Lore. Quick Characters can pick an Inheritance Move:

Hardy: The first time each day you take Harm, reduce it by 1.

Green Fingers: You know the medical and culinary uses of any plant or animal you encounter.

Animal Companion: You have a reliable mount. It's a vehicle with mount, land and one of air, water, swift or mighty.

Master Chef: The food you prepare and augment tastes exceptionally good, and will heal minor ailments and give people energy.

Surgeon: With a few hours of dedicated treatment you can clear all of someone's Harm boxes. With all your effort, you can delay the onset of someone's Dead box.

NOTES:

Mother Nature's a tough old girl, but she can be a little slow. Natural selection takes time, and with the insanity going on outside that's time we don't have. That's where we come in. Life finds a way, but sometimes it needs a little helping hand.

CULTIVATOR MOVES Take Culture and one other.

■ CULTURE

When your Family starts cultivating a new product, erase Surplus: Progress, Land, or Barter Goods. After a few months, harvest the product: get the surplus back, plus:

- Progress: get Surplus: Medicine and 1 use of medicine that can heal any harm box instantly.
- Land: get Surplus: Crops and slow but steady population growth. At the end of the age, if you still have the surplus gain Surplus: Recruits.
- Barter Goods: get Surplus: Livestock gain a few exemplary examples of the bred animals. If they're used as mounts, add 1 free tag to them.

At the start of each age you can skip the months of cultivation and go straight to the harvest.

DOMESTICATION

When an abnormal life form is brought back to your Family's farm and reshaped to your needs, choose one:

- Archive one of its traits. From now on you can add that trait to the crops and animals created by Culture and have the drugs you create temporarily grant it to their users.
- Corral a small breeding population of the organism.
- Find a way for you to resist its abilities or avoid its dangers.

RECYCLING

When your character dissects the body of unnatural creature, they can improvise a Device from its organs or fluids. In addition, your Family can sacrifice Surplus: Medicine, Crops or Livestock to activate Culture to make one of the other two surpluses.

INVESTMENT

STAKE

Whenever a Family you've traded with gains a Surplus in Land, Progress, Barter Goods or anything organic or medical, they may give you 1-Stake. If this takes you to 3-Stake, give them Surplus: Medicine, Crops or Livestock as if you had used Culture - with your Family gaining the side benefits as normal - and set Stake to 0.

EVOLUTIONARY LEAP

When you use Culture, characters gain one of these bonuses (according to the Surplus produced) the next time they Tool Up:

- Medicine: Your weapons can be poisoned to add the aberrant or non-lethal tags. Get 1 use of stimulants that'll stop someone's Death move from triggering for an hour.
- Crops: One serving of food that toughens skin and gives +1 Armour or provides boundless energy, depending on how it's cooked.
- Livestock: A group of animals with simian-level intelligence. They have 2 Quality and one of the following specialties: Strength and Endurance, Speed and Cunning, or Ferocity and Violence.

In addition, your Family improves themselves over generations. Every time The Age Turns, pick one physical trait they've encountered sometime this Age (night vision, flight, photosynthesis, etc) with the GM providing a downside. Your Family members will all exhibit that trait from then on.

Your characters can always have a friendly pet of some kind. In addition, pick 3:

HOW DO YOU FIGHT?

Soporific needles and darts (melee, nonlethal).
Surprisingly effective farming tools (melee, unreliable).

Trained attack animals (ranged, many).

HOW ARE YOU DEFENDED?

Animal hides and homespun fabric (utility, tough).
Nearly-pristine labcoats (regal, comms).

Forest-strider gear (camo, mobile).

HOW DO YOU TRAVEL?

Pedigree animals (land, mount).
Agricultural vehicles (land, mighty)

Mobile research station (land, med bay).

WHAT USEFUL EXPERTISE CAN YOU DRAW ON?

Farmers (1 Quality, Wrangling crops and animals).
Surgeons (1 Quality, Healing and dissecting).

Rangers (1 Quality, Living off the land).

If the Fall unleashed previously unknown technology and knowledge which you now seek out: Reach 1 Grasp -1 Sleight 1.

DOCTRINE

Choose one:

Holding Back Another Fall: When a piece of dangerous technology is brought back to the Family, they can break it down into 2 Tech.
Uplifting Mankind's Remnants: so long as others heed your Family's advice on a grand project, they take advantage on their rolls building it.
Better Living Through Technology: You can spend 1 point of Tech to get an extra choice when you Tool Up, or 5 Tech to mark off a Wonder Requirement.

LIFESTYLE

Choose one:

Nomadic: You keep your technology shrouded, and it looks mundane to the casual observer.
Dispersed: When you write to Family in other settlements for insights, get fleeting advantage when you act on their advice.
Settled: When you encounter a fragment of pre-Fall culture, you know its cultural significance.

TRADITIONS

Choose one of each, or create something else:

Populace: Close-knit families passing secrets to their children, Demagogues and those who seek their knowledge, Vat-grown duplicates.
Style: Bulky and concealing environment suits, utilitarian clothes studded with implants, monastic robes embroidered with circuitry.
Governance: Meritocratic academic bureaucracy, Anarchic rule of the loudest and most interesting, Hidebound council of elders.

LANDMARKS

Draw a sign of one from each on the map, or create something else:

Before: A secret research centre full of untamed wonders; A dangerous and unstable power plant; A site of connection to the stars beyond.
The Fall: A spot where the laws of physics were unravelled; A redoubt where the miraculous science from Before almost averted the Fall; The research centre that first understood the Fall's root cause.
A Threat: A crude tribe of raiders using advanced tech; A valley where lights appear in the sky; A ruin where creations of science now rule.

HISTORY

Ask the other families:

Which one of you is civilisation's best chance to regrow?
Give them 2-Treaty on you.
Which of you has seen the true power of our technology?
Take 2-Treaty on each other.
Which one of you holds the brightest mind of the Homeland? Give them 1-Treaty on you.

RESOURCES

Pick two as Surpluses and take the rest as Needs:
Defences, Engineering, Progress, Leadership, Morale

INHERITANCE

Radio Rig: You can sense when Tech is within a mile, and track it down to within 100 metres.
Pain Box: You have a machine that causes intense pain in anyone within a few dozen metres (melee, non-lethal, area, aberrant).
Survey drone: So long as your trail is visible from the air, you can roll +Lore on Wasteland Survival.
Hot Rod: You have an exceptionally fast vehicle - it has the swift tag, and you can change one of its tags with 15 minutes of tinkering.
Educated: The first time a person receives advice from you based on your knowledge of the Before, they gain fleeting advantage acting on it.

ENCLAVE MOVES Choose two:

SUFFICIENTLY ADVANCED POWER

Your Family has retained access to some of the wonders of the World Before. Choose one:

- Medical treatments able to cure any ailment.
- A ward that shields a wide area from harm.
- A weapon that could slay any foe.
- A vehicle that can swiftly transport a dozen people from horizon to horizon.

It comes with 3-Power. When you activate it, roll +Power spent (minimum 1). On a 10+ it works perfectly, exactly as desired. On a 7-9 it does what you wanted, but it's either out of action for the near future or there are weird anomalies (you choose). On a miss, it erupts with chaotic power and bizarre side effects.

Choose how Power is regained:

- Renewable Energy: 1 Power every few months, climate permitting.
- Precious Fuels: 1 Power per material Surplus erased.
- Mystic Sacrifice: 1 Power per named Family member or Player Character sacrificed.

WEIRD SCIENCE

When your Family puts together a device powerful enough to shape the local area for generations, say what they want it to do. The GM will give one to three of the following conditions:

- It'll take weeks/months/years to build.
- You'll need to erase a certain Surplus.
- It'll only work for a limited length of time before needing to recharge.
- You'll need to hook it up to a certain power source.
- You'll have to sacrifice 1/2/3 Tech.

Your characters can always have battered and half-understood journals from the Before. In addition, pick 3:

HOW DO YOU FIGHT?

Morphing pistols (ranged, hidden).
High-powered rifles from a distance (far, finesse).

Weird grenades (area, aberrant).

HOW ARE YOU DEFENDED?

Bulky hazmat suits (utility, sealed).
Gleaming power armour (powered, tough).

Blood-borne nanomachines (implanted, mantle).

WHAT SPECIAL VEHICLES DO YOU HAVE?

Flying vehicles (air, canopy).
Rugged APCs (land, transport).

DOCTRINE

Traders in Stories and Song: When your Family performs for a community, they gain fleeting advantage dealing with them.

Cut-throat Extortionists: When a customer wants your goods but can't afford them, your Family can convince them to perform a favour as payment instead.

Men of Wealth and Taste: When your Family gains a luxurious or extravagant Surplus, they gain fleeting advantage.

LIFESTYLE

Choose one:

Nomadic: When your Family comes to a new area, tell the group what hidden resource brought you here.

Dispersed: The transport of goods and messages between settlements is another Stock in Trade for your Family.

Settled: Everyone who carries something valuable to your settlement will bring it to your Family first.

TRADITIONS

Choose one of each, or create something else

Populace: Loose confederacy of traders, aristocrats living off their pre-Fall heirlooms, enthusiastic but eccentric collectors.

Style: Luxurious silks and furs, elegant but hardy trail wear, packs and pockets bulging with curios.

Governance: Decadent merchant-princes and their servants, an open market of favours and votes, independent traders under a shared charter.

LANDMARKS

Draw a sign of one from each on the map, or create something else:

Before: A vault built to preserve a priceless heritage; A haven for the rich and powerful that lasted longer than most; A huge and sombre building where the fate of nations was decided.

The Fall: A huge transport line, choked with abandoned vehicles; A business district, undamaged and devoid of life; A cache of doomsday weapons, built for the Fall.

A Threat: Cannibalistic raiders who have refused all attempts to negotiate; A dwindling but vital resource; Privileged survivors hoarding knowledge from the World Before.

HISTORY

Everyone, like it or not, has to trade with your Company. Take 1-Treaty on all the other Families. Then, ask the other Families:

Which of you came to our rescue when a deal went way south? Give them 2-Treaty on you.

Which of you harbours a guild of information brokers? Get 1-Treaty on them for their failure to rein in your rivals.

RESOURCES

Pick two as Surpluses and take the rest as Needs:

Opulence: Your gear is noticeably more luxurious than normal, and most people will be willing to trade for it.

The Beggar Prince: Your gear is deceptively shabby-looking, and people will dismiss you out of hand as beneath their notice.

Deep Pockets: When you look in your satchel for a helpful item, find it but choose one: it's fragile, it's got a side effect, it's precious to you.

Traveller's Tales: When you reach a new settlement, tell the group a story you've heard about it and the GM will confirm one part as true.

TECH

MERCHANT MOVES Take Stock in Trade and one other:

STOCK IN TRADE

Your Family has a particular product range they trade in, and you can expect to have those wares around unless your Family is deeply in need and Mood is at -3. Once per session, you can draw on one of your Stocks in Trade to boost a roll's results by one category: 6- to 7-9, 7-9 to 10+.

Choose one to three, depending on whether you want to sell one boutique stock or have a wide array of wares:

- Arms and ammunition.
- Art, music and culture.
- Books, maps, and instruction manuals for forgotten things.
- Drugs, spices and venoms.
- Food, fresh or preserved.
- Living creatures, bred or captured.
- Mementos of the World Before.

WHADDAYA BUYING?

When your Family brings goods to market roll +Reach. On a hit you're able to sell them for a fair price. On a 7-9 pick 1, 10+ pick 2:

- You hear an interesting rumour; get +1 Data.
- You make friends with another merchant, giving you easy access to another Stock in Trade while in this area.
- They don't realise the true worth of what they paid with.

BRAND LOYALTY

When you would use Diplomacy to meet someone who's bought from you before, instead automatically get an audience. They will always be willing to at least hear you out.

CABINET OF WONDERS

When you delve deep into your Family's reserves in search of something useful, describe what it is and what you want it for. It should fit with your Stock in Trade or a Surplus of yours. The GM will give you 1-3 downsides, and then you decide whether you still want to take it.

- It'll be useless afterwards.
- Its value will be immediately obvious to anyone who sees you carrying it.
- You're taking it away from an agreed buyer, and there'll be consequences if it isn't returned.
- You'll need help from a specific character or NPC to use it well.

AVARICIOUS APPRAISAL

When your Family tries to work out the worth of a new acquisition roll +Reach. On a hit you have a good idea how much you could get for it, as well as some details on its past owner(s).

On a 7-9 choose one:

- It's useless to you, but one of your allies could make use of it.
- It's incredibly, maddeningly valuable. Someone in your Family becomes obsessed with it, and you'll have to deal with them or Hold Together to successfully sell it.
- It's very valuable, but one of your enemies or rivals knows you have it and they're making plans.

RATIONING

Whenever you lose a surplus for any reason, hold 1. Spend 1 hold to get advantage on an action that surplus could help.

Your characters can always have well-fitting and stylish clothing. In addition, pick 3 for your Family:

HOW DO YOU FIGHT?

Masterwork heirloom weapons (melee, elegant).
Disposable prototype guns (ranged, many).

Poison-tipped needles (melee, hidden).

HOW ARE YOU DEFENDED?

Deluxe executive wear (regal, comms).
All-weather travel gear (utility, thermo).

Packrat kit (utility, powered).

HOW DO YOU TRAVEL?

Salvaged Fliers (air, canopy).
Beast-Drawn Caravans (land, transport).

DOCTRINE

Choose one:

Hired Guns: When you accept a job from a Family or faction to take down a target, your Family gains Surplus: Barter Goods or Scouts for the job's duration.

Righteous Vigilantes: When you come to a scene of violence, you can ask the GM one question about the victim or the attacker.

Bounty Hunters: When you drag a criminal back to a settlement, your Family gets +1 Reach there for the next Age.

LIFESTYLE

Choose one:

Nomadic: When your Family moves on from a settlement where they laid down the law, name one thing that settlement will now always (or never) do.

Dispersed: When your Family spreads word someone's Wanted, they'll find no shelter in allied towns.

Settled: Your Family is known as the local law in your home settlement, and its members will respect your judgements in all matters.

TRADITIONS

Choose one of each, or create something else

Populace: Gathering of the wronged and vengeful, distant descendants of cops and soldiers, corrupt enforcers providing protection and extortion.

Style: Bristling weapons and barely-contained violence, simple uniforms and hidden blades, sturdy trail clothes and a deep hood.

Governance: Lone vigilantes calling in for support when needed, complex legal codes overseen by elderly judges, hierarchy of respect from leg-breakers to godfathers.

LANDMARKS

Draw a sign of one from each on the map, or create something else:

Tin Star: You have an impressive symbol of your authority in the Family. When you brandish it, roll +Steel instead of +Sway for Familiar Face.

Restraints: You have strangely durable manacles. When you bind someone or something with them they will not break.

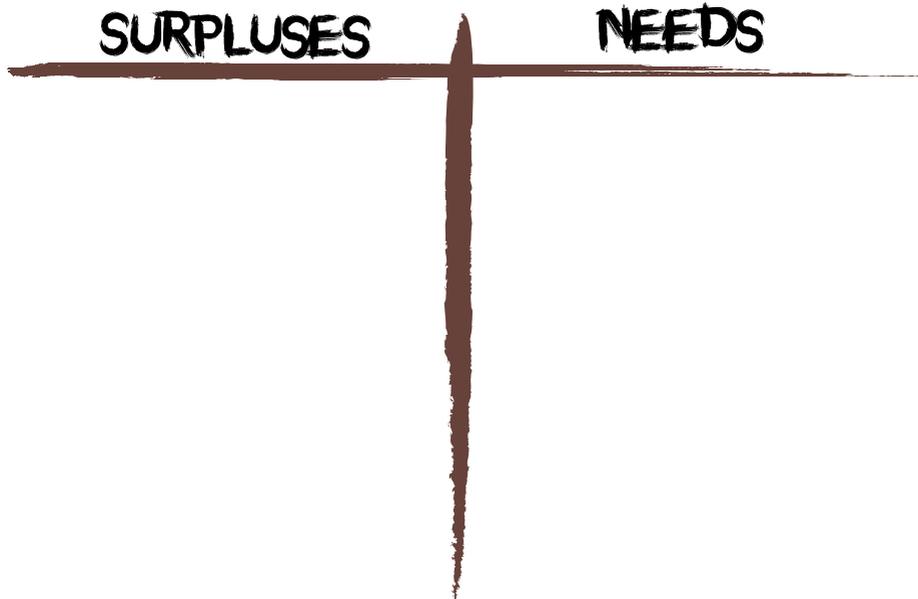

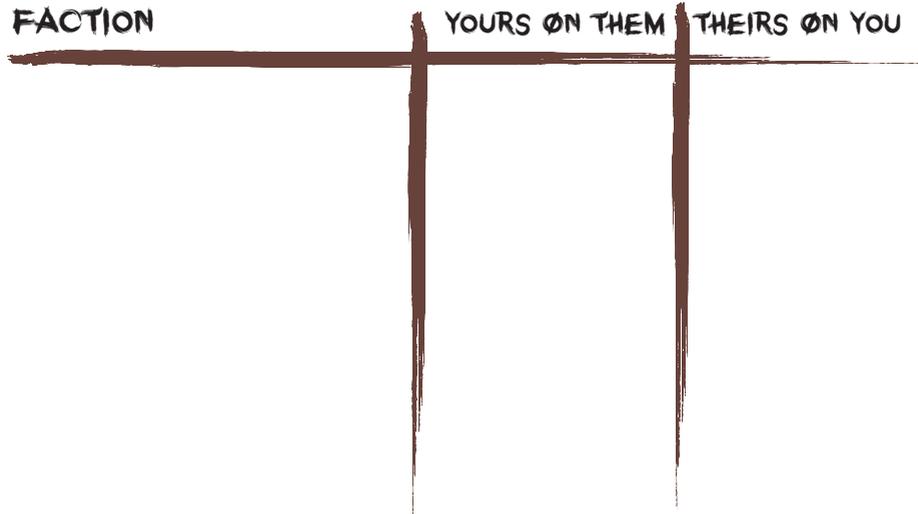

Loyal Steed: You have a living mount that's always nearby. Whistle and it'll be with you in a few moments.

Forensics: When you spend a few hours analysing evidence, the GM will tell you: what it's made of, important marks its history has left on it, and signs of who handled it recently.

Plea Bargain: When you Find Common Ground with someone you know is guilty of a crime, one term they pick must be 'you forgive the crime'.

Humanity is hurt, bleeding. The land cries out for justice. If there's no-one around to keep people on the straight and narrow and uphold the law, you'll just have to step up and take the law into your own hands.

Grapple: You have a sturdy grappling gun. It can hit targets a hundred metres away, and bear your weight and that of another.

Monster Empath: For each minute you spend observing a monster, you can ask the GM one of the following: What does it most want to do, what's hurting it, what can it sense that I can't?

Suppressing fire: While you attack with the goal of scaring foes and keeping their heads down, give your allies advantage when they flank them, escape them or target their position.

TECH

ORDER MOVES Take Kaiju Threat Alert and one another:

■ KAIJU THREAT ALERT

Your Family is dedicated to hunting Behemoths – titanic creatures that stalk the land and are hostile to human life. Each has unique strengths, hungers and capabilities, but they share a common origin. As a group, work out what sort of form your world's Behemoths take – are they organic, robotic, elemental, ephemeral?

When you scout for signs of behemoth attack, pick a danger in the world as an omen of an incoming assault. Say how it threatens Families of your choice, who become Alerted. You can spend Treaty you have on one Alerted group on any other.

If the behemoth is stopped before the threat becomes plausible, each Alerted Family or Faction gets 1-Treaty on you.

If you stop it once it's a clear threat, gain 1-Treaty on every Alerted Family or Faction, and redistribute Treaty on them as you like.

If someone else stops it once it's a clear threat you and whoever stopped it gain 1-Treaty on every Alerted Family or Faction.

If the behemoth assault happens as you foresaw, you and every Alerted Family or Faction gain a Need of your choice.

HELL DIVERS

When you first find out about a specific Behemoth, name one Hostile Ground condition it surrounds itself with. Your Vehicles and Outfits automatically avoid disadvantage in that environment, and you can spend 1 Tech to augment other's gear to resist it.

BEHEMOTH TECH

If a Behemoth is killed and you get access to its remains, you gain Surplus: Behemoth Tech. When used in a Wonder this replaces any two of its regular requirements. Tell us how the project was warped in alien ways.

ULTIMATE WEAPON

Your vehicles are the edge that allow you to bloody the nose of the Behemoth, and wipe the floor with regular foes. When you take one of your special vehicles out of storage, choose 2:

- They have an extra environment tag: sea, land, air, void, earth, or something stranger.
- You have advantage on actions to pilot it.
- They're giant and can fight Behemoths on equal terms.

Every time the you use it pick one:

- Erase Surplus: Transport or Surplus: Energy.
- It pollutes: gain Need: Medicine or Need: Land.
- It could break down or blow up at any moment.

DOOMSDAY RESEARCH

When you issue a Kaiju Threat Alert, gain 6 hold. When you act against the threat, spend 1 hold to roll with advantage.

If your character is directly confronting the threat, spend all remaining hold after rolling to set one of their dice to the hold spent.

SLEEP NOW IN THE FIRE

When you lure a Behemoth to rampage over a faction or Family under Kaiju Threat Alert, spend up to 3 points of Data and roll +Sleight. On a hit the Behemoth destroys one of their Surpluses per point of data spent; on a 7-9 it also destroys one of your Surpluses. On a 6- it unleashes great power and massive collateral damage, creating a new Hostile Ground. Don't miss.

Your characters can always have a trophy from a previous hunt. In addition, pick 3 for your Family:

HOW DO YOU FIGHT?

Silent snipers (far, silent).
Carving blades (melee, brutal).

Explosive launchers (ranged, area).

HOW ARE YOU DEFENDED?

Beast-climbing gear (utility, mobile).
Helldiver armour (hardened, sealed).

Bright halo (mantle, regal).

HOW DO YOU TRAVEL?

Outrider trucks (land, turret).
Tamed beasts (air, mount).

Command vehicles (land, med bay).

WHAT USEFUL EXPERTISE CAN YOU DRAW ON?

Scouts (1 Quality, Spotting approaching threats).
Tamers (1 Quality, Bringing animals to heel).

Soldiers (1 Quality, Suppressing fire).

If the Homeland is only partially covered by seas and oceans: Reach -1 Grasp +2 Sleight 0.

If the Homeland surrounds the lakes, marshes or aquifers you call home:

Reach 0 Grasp 0 Sleight +1.

DOCTRINE

Choose one:

Preservers of the Seas: The seas' wealth is yours for the taking. Gain Surplus: Barter Goods, Trade or Transport at the start of every Age.

Masters of the Waves: Your Family never suffers disadvantage navigating the seas, and they have advantage against other sailors.

Rulers of Atlantis: Your people are truly amphibious. Your Family never suffers disadvantage underwater, and they have advantage there against those not similarly adapted.

LIFESTYLE

Choose one:

Nomadic: You can find wealth beyond measure in the vastness of the oceans. If you erase Surplus: Barter Goods, Trade or Transport, get it back at the start of the next session.

Dispersed: Your domains are vast, but your people know how to make use of the resources of others. When you Call in a Debt and take one of their Surpluses, also gain Surplus: Safety, Morale or Leadership.

Settled: Your lands are wracked by storms and tempests. Anyone who acts against your Family in its home turf must take Need: Transport, Scouts or Trade.

TRADITIONS

Choose one of each, or create something else:

Populace: Aquatic cyborgs, genetically modified merfolk, an intrepid crew of submariners.

Style: Sleek diving clothing, glossy armour and equipment, diaphanous nets and fabrics.

Governance: A technocratic council, a communist collective, enlightened anarchy, the pirate's code.

LANDMARKS

Draw a sign of one from each on the map, or create something else:

Before: Sprawling ruins of docks and berths; A haunted offshore research facility; A ship graveyard.

The Fall: A sunken city, poison flowing through its streets; A derelict carrier, larger than most cities; A death stranding where the great sea creatures beached themselves and died.

A Threat: A massive volcano not far from the shore, threatening eruption; A precarious cliffside settlement assaulted by the rising tide; An invading flotilla.

Ask the other Families:

Which one of you is partly descended from Pioneers who turned their back to the sea? Gain 1-Treaty on each other.

Which one of you was our sole contact with drylanders for a long time? What happened to reveal our existence to the other Families? They take 2-Treaty on you.

Which of you hosts a brilliant explorer who relies on our secrets? Take 1-Treaty on them.

RESOURCES

Pick two as surpluses and take the rest as Needs:

Morale, Scouts, Progress, Land, Transport

INHERITANCE

Pioneer characters get +1 to Force or Steel. Quick characters pick an inheritance move:

The Call of the Deep: If you're near a large body of water you can summon a beast from its depths. It'll arrive within a few hours, but will rampage heedless of your wishes.

Breathing Apparatus: You can always breathe easy, no matter the circumstance, and can puff out vapours that intoxicate those around you.

Entangling Nets: If you get your nets around someone, everyone else has advantage when assaulting or escaping them.

Pirate's Code: So long as you always accept other's surrender, intelligent foes are willing to give you a chance to parley.

Tempest-tossed: When you hurl yourself into a storm, natural disaster or cataclysm, roll +Steel. On a hit, you end up somewhere safe once the disaster's over. On a 10+ you still have your gear and health.

NOTES:

The sea, the great unifier, has always been our only hope for survival. Now it's time to share the ocean's lessons, bounty and beauty with the drylanders. In a tough world you need salt: waves, tears, sweat or blood.

PIONEER MOVES Take two:

LORDS OF THE DEEP

The water cycle and the life cycle are one, and your Family understands them better than any other. When you erase a Surplus, recover 1 Tech from the depths.

HYDRA'S CHILDREN

When you claim by force in a marine environment, assistance from creatures of the deep gives you Advantage to the roll. Spend 1 tech to call a hulking beast onto land, gaining advantage on all Claim by Force rolls as long as it survives.

THE DRAGON IN THE SEA

You are free from the hope that the sea will ever rest. Instead, you've learned to sail through the tempest.

When your Family hits -2 Mood, you can roll +Grasp: on a hit gain 2 of Surplus: Barter Goods, Trade, or Progress, and erase a Need. Say how the sea provides for you in your moment of need. On a miss, the GM can make as hard a move as they like.

THE KRAKEN WAKES

Sometimes we must discard the old, embrace the new, and run headlong down an unwavering course. When your Family faces a Trial on the Turning of Ages, gain Surplus: Motivation and 1 hold per Trial faced. Spend a point of hold to give a Family move advantage.

STARTIDE RISING

The sea, once it casts its spell, holds one in its net of wonder forever. You can spend 1-Tech and work a special ritual to let a Family's characters ignore Disadvantage from underwater hostile grounds. This lasts until the next Age.

If you do this for another Family or faction, you have advantage on Conduct Diplomacy or Find Common Ground rolls with them for the rest of time.

Your characters always have enough breathing equipment to function on land and in water. In addition, pick 3:

HOW DO YOU FIGHT?

Fishing Spears (melee, brutal).
Claws and fangs (melee, hidden).

Pneumatic guns (ranged, silent).

HOW ARE YOU DEFENDED?

Environment suits (powered, sealed).
Grappling rig (mobile, utility).

Hardened scales (regal, tough).

Amphibious crawlers (land, water).
Submersibles (water, canopy).

Galleons (water, transport).

If your religion is a response to the threats that haunt the Homeland: Reach -1 Grasp 0 Sleight 2.

DOCTRINE

Choose one:

The Faith is Mother, the Faith is Father: The bonds of faith between you are more than natural. When Family members are in deep distress, other members somehow know.

The Canticle of Illumination: When you enter a hostile community, you will not be harmed so long as you provide some aid.

The Cleansing Fires of Purity: When you fight the horrors of the Fall, the wounds you inflict will never heal.

LIFESTYLE

Choose one:

Nomadic: When you enter a new settlement, tell the group one thing the settlement's main faith makes mandatory and one thing it forbids.

Dispersed: The faith has been spread far, and you'll always find lodging and food with other faithful in a settlement.

Settled: Your community is bound together with secret gestures, shared phrases and other shibboleths. Anyone who tries to infiltrate your community rolls with Disadvantage.

TRADITIONS

Choose one of each, or create something else

Populace: Secluded monastic community, evangelistic cult full of zealous converts, disparate survivors of an unimaginable calamity.

Style: Outlandish and impractical ceremonial wear, plain homespun robes, conspicuous symbols of prosperity and devotion.

Governance: Acolytes interpreting the utterances of an oracle, dogmatic adherence to a holy text, many shepherds guiding many flocks.

LANDMARKS

Draw a sign of one from each on the map, or create something else:

Before: A temple of a lost faith, miraculously untouched by the Fall; A holy site that drew countless pilgrims to their deaths; The grave of the last great preacher of the Before.

The Fall: The place where people first battled "demons"; The first cult to revere the agents of the Fall; A fortress of those who banded together to stave off Armageddon.

A Threat: A prophet of the End, returned from death; Demons, embodying all the horrors of the Fall; A cabal of Fall-cultists, intent on following mysterious visions.

HISTORY

Then, judge each other Family:

Righteous: They say what they did to win you over. You give them 1-Treaty.

Corrupt: Take 1-Treaty on them. They say what happened to make your Family condemn them.

RESOURCES

INHERITANCE

Servant Characters get +1 to Sway or Steel. Quick Characters can pick an Inheritance Move:

Blood for Blood: If you lay hands on someone and burn out your own health, mark harm 1-for-1 to heal them: cosmetic for cosmetic, impairing for impairing, dead for dead.

Martyr: If anyone in arm's reach would take harm, you can jump in the way and take it yourself.

Paladin: If you spend an hour praying over a weapon, you can give it the aberrant tag.

Clergy: When you wear the garb of your faith, people will assume you're: harmless, deadly, mystical, self-sacrificing. Pick one according to your Family's reputation.

Confessional: When you spend an hour preaching to an audience, one audience member will approach you afterwards and confess something that's useful to you.

SERVANT MOVES Take Faith of the Fallen and one other:

FAITH OF THE FALLEN

FAITH

Your Family has a faith they cling to more ardently than life itself. Choose one tenet:

- The restoration and healing of humanity.
- The protection of the unfortunate.
- The renunciation of the Before.
- Transformation into gods.
- Travel to a pristine and unspoiled land.

At the start of each Age, count those who are in line with your tenet as Righteous and everyone else as Corrupt.

When your Family gains something that furthers their tenet, gain 1 Faith. When an emissary of your Family – including your Character – draws on this vision of future perfection, spend 1 Faith to:

- Get an insight towards your current goal.
- Ignore all penalties and Disadvantage for a single roll.
- Plant the seeds of your faith in the mind of another.

THE INQUISITION

When your Family makes an example out of a member of a Corrupt Family or Faction, hold 1. Spend hold 1-for-1 to force someone, Righteous or Corrupt, to choose one of the following:

- Perform a task for you, no matter the risk.
- Say a secret they don't want you to hear.
- Give up all their possessions.

SACRIFICE

When you whip your Family into a frenzy then send them into battle, you can gain Need: recruits, Need: medicine and/or Need: leadership. For each you take, choose one:

- Darkness will cloud your enemies' eyes, allowing you to take them by surprise.
- One chosen champion of your Family will be unharmed by the foe's attacks.
- The site of the battle will be marked and forever stand as a testament to your righteousness.

A VOICE IN THE WILDERNESS

When your Family condemns a powerful figure or organisation in a public place roll +Grasp. On a hit, they're now counted as Corrupt. On a 7-9, choose one; on a 10+ choose two.

- You'll suffer no reprisals.
- You receive grateful donations; gain Surplus: barter goods.
- The crowd delivers a representative of your foe to you.
- The audience riots, forcing your enemy into retreat.

THE PLAGUES

If you have 5 Treaty or more on a Corrupt Family or Faction, you can denounce their wicked ways. At some point of this Age the GM will unleash a natural disaster upon them, devastating their holdings.

The Corrupt Family or Faction is now considered Righteous. Lose 1-Treaty with every other Family or Faction; deep inside they know all that pain and loss came from your decrees.

Your characters can always have a small holy book or a religious symbol. In addition, pick 3 for your Family:

HOW DO YOU FIGHT?

Ceremonial weapons (melee, unreliable).
Flamethrowers (ranged, area).

Infectious madness (ranged, aberrant).

HOW ARE YOU DEFENDED?

By blending in (utility, camo).
Blessed heirlooms (regal, tough).

Crude implants (implanted, hardened).

HOW DO YOU TRAVEL?

Caravans (land, transport).
Placid livestock (land, mount).

Ambulance (land, medbay).

WHAT USEFUL EXPERTISE CAN YOU DRAW ON?

Inquisitors (1 Quality, Exposing guilt).
Healers (1 Quality, Treating illnesses).

Evangelists (1 Quality, Communicating with outsiders).

Secret Invaders: when your Family gets a hit on Subterfuge to subvert or take control of a power structure from within, gain 1 Data.

Stellar Locusts: Take Advantage on rolls to Claim by Force a resource you have a Need for.

LIFESTYLE

Choose one:

Nomadic: your atmospheric drop ships are still functional. You can use them to gain advantage on Wasteland Survival, but everyone sees where you go.

Dispersed: your people can gather all their numbers on a moment's notice. You use strange technology to bring them together, gaining advantage to Grasp rolls as long as they stay there, but you must Hold Together once you part.

Settled: your base is secret and well-hidden. Attempts to find it have disadvantage, but you may never gain Surplus: Trade.

TRADITIONS

Choose one of each, or create something else:

Populace: Vaguely humanoid, arachnoid builders, biomechanical cephalopods.

Style: Bulky life support, bristling with weaponry, nanogel suits.

Governance: Genetics-based autocracy, a council of digitised elders, decentralised cells bound by an alien moral code.

LANDMARKS

Draw a sign of one from each on the map, or create something else:

Before: Evidence of ancient alien contact; A secret vault and prison for aliens; A grand project to reach the stars.

The Fall: The crater where the planetary defence centre used to be; A vast alien ship, intact but out of reach; A former internment camp littered with bones.

A Threat: A rapidly-expanding alien ecosystem; Signals that destroy the mind of those who try to interpret them; Self-replicating machines carrying on a long forgotten mission.

Ask the other Families:

Which of you did we save from certain doom with our technology? Get 1-Treaty on them.

Which of you did we secretly experiment on in the past? They take 1-Treaty on you.

RESOURCES

INHERITANCE

Starfarer characters get +1 to Lore or Sway. Quick characters pick an inheritance move:

Neuralyzer: If you can get someone to stare into this gadget's bright light for a few seconds, you can erase the last 5 minutes of their memory.

Telepathy: You speak into minds, not through sound.

You can speak to anyone you can see, and no-one else can overhear.

Doppelganger: After a few minutes of painful adaptation you can shapechange into any organism you've directly observed.

Final Form: Instead of activating your Death Move, erase this to enter a chrysalis. An hour later you'll emerge fully-healed, and with an outfit tag that'd help you resist what killed you.

Ride the Lightning: You have a small, wire-threaded gem. If you give it to someone they can break it to summon you instantly to their side.

STARFARER MOVES Take two moves:

ØRBITAL BOMBARDMENT

When you attack from orbit, raze a terrain feature or a Surplus belonging to another Family or Faction. Then roll +Grasp. On a 7-9 choose 2, on a 10+ choose 1:

- You cause unintended collateral damage.
- You galvanise your foes against you.
- You lose 1-Treaty on every other Family or Faction.

INVADING ARMIES

When you march upon an opponent, bringing to bear all your advanced arms and ships, roll +Reach. On a 7-9 choose 1, on a 10+ choose 2:

- Their allies stop providing them support.
- Their followers start rioting in panic.
- One of their enemies will pay you a tribute of 1 Surplus.

BODY SNATCHERS

When you roll a 7+ on Subterfuge, you may declare that some members of the targeted Family or faction have been replaced with duplicates loyal to you.

When you activate the sleeper cell, roll +Sleight. On a hit, choose one:

- You learn a secret weakness of their defences.
- You learn ways to move through this area quickly and unseen.
- You learn clues to a hidden strength or unknown history.

On a 10+ you are given access to a safe house you can use while you're in that Family or Faction's territory.

WORMHOLE GATES

Spend 1 Tech to instantly relocate your Character or one of your assets to the safety of one of your bases.

ABDUCTION

If you use your grasping lights to abduct someone mentally or bodily, trigger Conduct Diplomacy but lose 1-Treaty on their Family or Faction.

In exchange, pick two:

- The target won't remember this conversation.
- The target won't be able to lie to you.
- The abduction happens immediately.
- Their absence will go unnoticed until it's too late.

ALIEN PHYSIOLOGY

You're perfectly adapted to environments lethal to humans. Pick 1-3 tags all your characters have from now on:

Hardened
Sealed
Thermo

For each you take, add an extra penalty to one of their harm boxes - damage to life support reveals how poorly adapted you are to the Homeland.

Your character always has some feature that marks them as inhuman. In addition, pick 3 for your Family:

HOW DO YOU FIGHT?

Acid spit (ranged, hidden).
Energy blasters (ranged, brutal).

Psionic amplifiers (ranged, aberrant).

HOW ARE YOU DEFENDED?

Adaptive force fields (camo, mantle).
Spacesuits (sealed, hardened).

Bio-boosting skin (tough, mobile).

HOW DO YOU TRAVEL?

Null-grav fliers (air, swift).

Shepherds of Humanity: your factories could rebuild civilization from scratch, if given the proper blueprints. You can spend 2-Data to manufacture 3-Tech.

Axioms of Order: The Hive's directive is to bring harmony and discipline to the world. You have Advantage on Hold Together.

Guardians of the Singularity: you always know how much Tech other Families and Factions have in store. Whenever an Unleash Power rouses devices in the environment, gain 1 Data.

TRADITIONS

Populace: Part-human cyborgs, anthropomorphic robots, inhuman machines.

Style: Sleek and minimalist design, heavy and dirty casing, camouflaged military armour.

Governance: Blind obedience to master control, shared consciousness of conjoined minds, one mind replicated to infinity.

LANDMARKS

Draw a sign of one from each on the map, or create something else:

Before: An ancient power plant, dead but mostly intact; A remote node critical to the digital infrastructure of Before; A fortress, still defended by advanced drones.

The Fall: A processing plant turned into an abattoir; A wasteland ravaged by weaponized weather; Scars of mankind's most destructive and desperate tactics.

A Threat: A sentient war machine gone rogue; Self-replicating drones on an arcane mission; Digital ghosts haunting the physical landscape.

HISTORY

Everyone worries you could strike at any moment. Each Family says what event caused this fear, and you take 1-Treaty on them.

Then ask the other Families:

Which of you holds an important node of your ancestral infrastructure? Say what prevents them from unlocking its deeper mysteries and give them 2-Treaty.

Which of you hosts a leader that could unite everyone and crush us? Why hasn't she done that yet? Give them 2-Treaty.

INHERITANCE

Hive characters get +1 to Steel or Lore. Quick characters pick an inheritance move:

Swarm Form: You can dissolve into a swarm of tiny flying bots. Each individual bot has limited intelligence; treat the swarm as Followers with Quality +2. Roll Under Orders to see where you reform and what they do on the way.

EMP: You can release a blast that shuts down all technology within eyesight - including yourself. You boot back up a few minutes later, and the EMP is recharged within a few hours.

Resource Digester: You can eat any material, a handful at a time. Six hours later you produce its core components out of a chest hatch, purified into one-inch cubes.

Turret Mode: If you anchor yourself to a spot and devote all resources to your combat systems, add the brutal and many tags to your weapons.

Transmorpher: With a few moments of shifting you can become a vehicle with two tags of your choice.

NANOFABRICATORS

You alone control the miraculous nanotechnology. When you use your foundries to break down resources and reassemble them, pick one:

- Erase a physical Surplus to gain 2-Tech.

DRONE ARMY

You may spend Tech to boost your follower's Quality, 1-for-1.

A Threat: Drone weapons still waging ancient war; A cache of doomsday weapons that fell into the wrong hands; A foreign army stranded in the Homeland.

TYRANT MOVES Take two moves:

ALWAYS OUNUMBERED, NEVER OUNGUNNED ARSENAL

Choose what gives your Family a ferocious edge in battle:

- A huge, bristling cornucopia of weaponry.
- A few ill-tempered but devastating relics of the Fall.
- A feral, barely-restrained killing instinct.

Start with 3-Arsenal.

When you go all-out on an enemy, you may spend 1-Arsenal to:

- Dismay and overwhelm your foes.
- Drastically alter the battlefield or your place in it.
- Leave the battlefield in whatever direction you wish.

At the start of a new Age, reset to 3-Arsenal.

CONSCRIPTION

When you show a group of outsiders that you have the power to bring them pain, ruin or glory, your Family can gain Surplus: recruits, but choose one:

- The conscripts chafe under your rule and are plotting rebellion.
- They're green and will likely break in the next major battle.
- They'll only fight for you so long as they believe your promises.

- A Scholar: Get +1 Lore when you listen to their advice.
- A Courtier: Get +1 Sway when they sweet-talk your target.
- A Guide: Get +1 Steel when you send them to scout ahead.

To heal those slots, convince someone equally skilled to join you, or spend time healing them in a place of safety with access to a relevant surplus.

TOUGH OLD SOUL

When anyone in your group suffers Harm, tell everyone about a time something similar happened to you. The first person that acts on this past experience has advantage on their roll.

ABLE LEADER

Player-controlled characters aren't beholden to this, but members of their family or their followers might be.

REAVES MOVES Get My Kingdom, My Rules and choose one more:

MY KINGDOM, MY RULES

Thanks to your heritage, strange tech or pure grit, you're most comfortable in some region outside the safety of the Homeland: the precarious ruins, the deep seas, the immaterial digital realms, off-world void, tunnels underground, or somewhere else.

You are perfectly adapted to that harsh reality and have Advantage there. Also pick 2 to describe the method of transport you use to travel to the Homeland and back:

- It makes the trip quickly.
- It makes the trip safely.
- It can take others and items too.

ACT OF REBELLION

When you infiltrate an outpost, roll +Steel. On a 10+, pick 3. On a 7-9, pick 2. On a 6- pick 1:

- You enter unnoticed.
- You have an escape route.
- No violence is needed.
- You find the most valuable thing there.

WALK BESIDE ME

When you explain a plan of attack to your team, roll +Steel. On a 10+, hold 3. On 7-9, hold 1. While executing the plan, spend 1 hold to give a teammate Advantage on a roll.

HEROISM IS OPTIONAL

When you take advantage of an opening to escape a situation, roll +Steel. On a hit, you get away. On a 10+, pick 1. On a 7-9, pick 2. On a 6- pick 3:

- You get hurt during the escape.
- You end up in another dangerous situation.
- You leave something important behind.
- You owe someone for your escape.

BEAUTY IS UNBEARABLE

When you plan out how to steal something, ask the GM three of these questions. The first time you act on each answer, roll with advantage.

- What else is valuable there?
- What's my target's most powerful defence?
- Who will retaliate?
- Who else wants it?

INHERITANCE

Get one of your Family's inheritance moves.

ROLE MOVES

Choose one at character creation:

Leader: Mark when you lead your Family into your chosen Hostile Grounds. Say how you managed to keep them all safe, sheltered and fed.

Agent: Mark when you raid under your Family's orders. Name the treasure you're hunting, the GM says why it's particularly important to its owner.

Rebel: Mark when you raid your own Family. Name a faction that now considers you a hero.

Outsider: Mark when you abandon everything and disappear into your chosen Hostile Grounds. Return at any moment when you think you're needed; the GM says what came back with you.

When you change roles, add 1 to a stat or get a new move. If you mark all roles, retire to safety and narrate an epilogue, using as much of your Death move as you wish.

HARM

DEAD

DEATH MOVE

PROTEAN FORM

Your body was comprehensively twisted by the Fall, but you've gained some mastery over it. When you contort your body into a new configuration, roll +Steel. On a hit, keep control and hold 2. On a 10+ hold 3. Spend hold to:

- Grow plates that give you +2 Armour against one hit.

- Shift a limb into a wicked weapon (melee, aberrant, brutal)
- Break or slip through an obstruction.

On a miss, the GM will tell you how you temporarily lose control.

ARCANE ABERRATIONS

When you force the power within out to twist the world around you, roll +Lore. On a hit the energy bursts free and does roughly what you wanted, but on a 7-9 there are unintended side effects decided by the GM.

ETERNAL MEMORIES

When you come upon a remnant of the Fall, roll +Lore. On a hit, get 1 Data and the GM tells you something you remember about it from before the world was broken. On a 10+ you can ask a follow-up question.

Trigger one at character creation:

Leader: Mark when you lead the family in worshipping the power of the Before or the Fall. The GM says one way it's already changing them.

Agent: Mark and hold 1 when you advise a project with the wisdom of a fallen age. Spend the hold to reveal a forgotten principle or theory the project secretly benefits from.

Rebel: Mark when you seek answers to the mysteries of your creation. Say one thing you remember of that time.

Outsider: Mark when you reject baseline humanity to pursue your own evolution. Mark a place on the map where you might use the energies of the Fall as a catalyst.

When you change roles, add 1 to a stat or get a new move. If you mark all roles, retire to safety and narrate an epilogue, using as much of your Death move as you wish.

INHUMAN ELEGANCE

- Giving you something you want.
- Giving you secret information.
- Protecting you from harm.
- Introducing you to someone important.

For NPCs, while you have hold over them they can't act against you. For PCs, instead, any time you like you can spend your hold, 1 for 1, to inspire or distract them with thoughts of you and give their roll Advantage or Disadvantage.

On a miss, they hold 2 over you, on the exact same terms.

When you die, gain 3 more hold. Spend it when you wish to give another character's roll advantage. Each beneficiary says how your memory inspires them.

AGENT

Say a narrow field you're an expert in: scavenging, diplomacy, hunting, etc. When you use your skills, reveal a secret about the situation and get fleeting advantage acting on it.

When you die, reveal your mission's final step. If the party does it, the mission succeeds.

REBEL

When you break your family's code, roll +Steel. On a hit they have higher priorities than punishing you. On a 10+ get fleeting advantage when you socialise with their rivals or enemies.

When you die, your Family finally respects your outlook. Say a way they change in your honour.

ØUSIDER

You have strange abilities. Pick a stat: you can take 1 harm to roll it with advantage. Describe how side effects twist the area or your body.

When you die, terrible energies plague the area. Those that brave the maelstrom can find a Device on your body.

FAMILY MOVES

BASIC

HOLD TOGETHER

When your Family must resist hardship, temptation or infighting, roll +Mood. On a hit you mostly remain OK, pick 1:

- You lose people to harm and/or desertion. Get Need: recruits.
- Another Family or Faction came through to help you. Give them 1 Treaty on you.
- The danger hasn't passed so much as shifted into something more manageable. Say what it is.

On a 10+ the trial brings you together. Gain Surplus: Morale in addition to the other results.

CONDUCT DIPLOMACY

When you call on your Family's allies, say what you want from them and roll +Reach:

- A meeting with one of their VIPs.
- Access to a tightly-guarded location or item.
- Information on an opportunity or threat.

On a hit, you get what you wanted and 1 Data. On a 7-9, your agents had to get help from a third party. Say which of your allies helped them seal the deal, and give them 1-Treaty.

CLAIM BY FORCE

When you direct your Family to seize or maintain control of a resource, roll +Grasp. On a hit it's theirs, but not without cost. On a 7-9 choose two; on a 10+, choose one:

- You need to commit to securing it. Tie one of your surpluses to the resource: if you lose the resource, you lose the surplus and vice versa.
- There is a cost to your victory. Your family gets a need of the GM's choice.
- You hurt somebody; the GM will say who, and they take 2-Treaty on you.

SUBTERFUGE

When your Family infiltrates other factions, roll +Sleight. On a hit, choose one thing your agents achieve:

- They make a resource appear more or less desirable.
- They cause a scandal within a Family/Faction's organisation.
- They hide your own involvement in an action; you may frame someone else in their place if you wish.
- They sabotage an asset, making it fail at the worst moment.

On a 7-9 the GM names a clue you leave behind, or a family or faction that sees through the deception.

POWER UP

When you boost your actions with a marvel of Before or anomaly of the Fall, spend a point of Tech to give a roll Advantage.

UNCOVER SECRETS

When you gather your family's specialists in council, roll +Data spent. On a hit ask 1:

- "How do I get Surplus ___";
- "How do I remove Need ___";
- "What's the truth behind ___"
- "How can we best make use of ___".

For each answer, add an appropriate detail to the map.

On a 10+, ask a second question or add to the map one of:

- A powder keg ready to explode.
- A place to shelter from harm.
- A barrier that impedes travel.

PERIPHERAL

CALL IN A DEBT

When you call on an obligation another Family has to you, spend 1 Treaty and choose one:

- Gain +2 on a move that targets them.
- Take a Surplus from them.
- Get them to back you up, fall into indecision, or protect something important.

Player families can resist by spending 1-Treaty on you, or Holding Together if they have none.

LEND AID

When your Family throws its weight behind another, roll +Treaty with them.

On a hit you give that Family fleeting Advantage.

On a 7-9 your Family is exposed to any danger, retribution or unforeseen consequences of their move.

FINDING A SURPLUS

When your family claims or creates a significant resource in the fiction, add it as a surplus.

RIGHT TOOL FOR THE JOB

When your family uses their resources to confront a crisis, erase an appropriate surplus and mitigate or resolve the problem.

FLUSH WITH RESOURCES

If Mood would hit +4, erase a Surplus and pick 1:

- Sell off the excess Surplus for 1 Tech.
- Gift the excess to your allies and gain advantage with Reach until the end of this Age.
- Bond with a great celebration, giving you advantage with Grasp until the end of this Age.
- Finance a network of informants and gain advantage with Sleight until the end of this Age.
- Invest in better equipment. Get a new gear option.

You can only pick each option once per age.

FALL INTO CRISIS

If Mood would hit -4, erase a Need and pick 1:

- Someone takes advantage of your weakness: lose territory or an important alliance.
- Your family falls into infighting: get disadvantage with Grasp until the dispute is resolved.
- Your family retreats into solitude to work through its issues, giving you disadvantage with Reach until they are convinced out of isolation.
- Your family loses discipline and your contacts smell weakness on you, giving you disadvantage with Sleight until you make a display of might and drive.
- Your old tools fail you. Lose one gear option.

You can only pick each option once per age.

CALL FOR AID

After failing to roll as well as you'd like, say what another character nearby can do to boost your efforts. If the group agrees, the helper says how they do it and rolls an appropriate stat.

If they hit, you increase your result by one category: 6- becomes 7-9, 7-9 becomes 10+.

On a 7-9, they also share in your move's consequences.

If they fail, your result drops to a 6- and they share in the consequences.

STORY MOVES

ZOOMING IN

When you focus on critical scenes where a handful of people might change the course of history over hours or days, say where you are on the map.

1. The main characters present say what they're there to do.
2. The GM describes details of the environment, or asks the players questions about it.
3. Other players may create or pick up quick characters to fill out the party.
4. Characters select gear according to their family's assets and the established fiction.

Begin play!

TOOL UP

When you Zoom In on a character you may equip them with any of their Family's assets, customised to suit their circumstances.

For each of your Surpluses, pick a relevant benefit:

- Add a tag to a piece of gear for this mission.
- Get as many copies of a weapon, outfit or vehicle as needed to outfit the whole party.
- Add 1 to the quality of a set of followers for this mission.
- Get scout's reports worth 1 Data.

ZOOMING OUT

When events move from zoomed in scenes to the bigger picture, and actions covering weeks and months become important, each player whose main character wasn't involved picks one:

- They found a new place in their family. Change their Role.
- They went scavenging in the wasteland. Add 1 Tech to their Family's stock.
- They scouted for information. Describe a lead that might give you a new Surplus or remove a Need, and get 1 Data.
- They helped out another Family or Faction. Gain 1 Treaty on them.
- They discovered a new danger. Describe it, and say which other Family or Faction it's threatening.

Briefly describe what the Character got up to and then move to the Family level, describing what actions your family organisation are taking.

IN WANT

When the perils looming over your family threaten to come to pass, roll +Needs.

On a 10+ pick a Need. On a 13+, the GM picks one too. For each Need, select another player to choose what crisis it creates for your family:

- A family member's in trouble. Someone's ransoming them, or they're stranded in the wasteland, or they're at death's door.
- A family asks for aid you can't easily give. Refuse and lose 3-Treaty on them, or get involved despite your limited resources.
- Something snuck under your radar. The player picks an option from Uncover Secrets as the first sign of danger, adding it to the map.
- Your resources run dry. You can't get new supplies from one gear category this session.

Either the other player or the group then fleshes out the details.

THE AGE TURNS

When years and generations pass by, roll +Mood.

On a miss choose two trials.

On a 10+ choose two fortunes and gain 2 Tech.

On a 7-9 choose one trial and one fortune and gain 1 Tech.

TRIALS

Your Family suffers persecution and violence, but it pushes them to adapt and grow. Gain a new Family move but gain Need: revenge.

Your Family was subsumed or enslaved by another Family, and have only recently managed to break away. Take a move from their playbook, but they get 2-Treaty on you.

Starvation and poverty forced your Family to try raiding and thieving, and it pissed people off. Gain 3 Surpluses, your choice, but give 2-Treaty to two other Families.

Something monstrous from out of the wasteland took a particular dislike to your Family and has been hounding them ever since. Say some secret you've learned about it, gain 2 Tech from scavenged parts of it, but take disadvantage on Family moves against it. A plague ravaged your Family, and no other Families could help. Afterwards, they promise aid in the future. Gain 3-Treaty split between any Families you wish but take Need: medicine.

Your Family saved the Homeland from some great threat, whether invading armies or natural disaster, but at great cost to themselves. Gain +1 Reach and Surplus: motivation, but take Need: recruits.

Your Family fell apart into feuding factions. The eventual victors are stronger, more unified, but lacking refinement. Gain +1 Grasp and Surplus: leadership, but gain Need: culture.

Disaster scattered your Family. You abandoned your holdings, but you know how to stay hidden better than ever. Gain +1 Sleight and Surplus: Reconnaissance, but take Need: Land.

MAKING CHANGES

Each player:

1. Gives the broad story of their Family through the Age.
2. Changes Doctrine, Lifestyle, Gear and Traditions as desired.
3. Names a new custom they develop to remember this Age.
4. Adds one new threat, opportunity or faction to the map.
5. Adds/adjusts map elements to fit the Fortunes and Trials chosen.
6. Decides whether to keep their old Character playbook, move their original character to a new playbook, or build a new one from scratch. Then they trigger a role move of their choice.

FORTUNES

Your Family goes through a golden age, questioning old philosophies and forging new paths. Gain a new Family move but gain Need: leadership.

Through marriage and trade, you learn one strength of another Family. Take a move from their playbook, but they get 2-Treaty on you.

Your Family spends its time brokering deals and making friends. If you erase 2 of your Surpluses by spending them on gifts and trades you can gain 3-Treaty divided between other Families however you wish.

Your Family found a hidden vault still intact from the World Before. Say what its true treasure was and gain 2 Tech from initial scavenging. However, decades of delving have left you isolated; gain Need: trade.

Your Family finds a windfall, whether through scavenging or by absorbing a smaller family. Gain 3 Surpluses of your choice, but it's left you bloated; gain Need: idle.

Your Family builds a place of safety and commerce, creating a new haven in this land. Gain +1 Reach and Surplus: peace, but take Need: obligation.

You go to war, whether for justice or spoils. Gain +1 Grasp and Surplus: weaponry, but someone out there holds a grudge. Take disadvantage on all Reach moves against them until they've been dealt with for good.

A series of messy public disagreements caused many Family members to leave, but it was all according to plan. From their new homes, your exiles send you regular reports on their host's activities. Gain +1 Sleight and Surplus: Spies, but take Need: Recruits.

GEAR

ARMOURY

All families can take weapons with one of these tags:

Melee: useful against targets within arm's reach.

Ranged: useful against targets outside arm's reach and out to a few hundred metres.

Potential tags for the weapons you pick up:

Far: useful against targets hundreds of metres away but within eyesight.

Area: affects a wide area when used, enabling you to take on groups that outnumber you.

Aberrant: uses something other than kinetic force to hurt your enemies - sound waves, radiation, psionics etc.

Brutal: devastates its targets and leaves collateral damage.

Hidden: people won't see this weapon as a danger.

Silent: the weapon doesn't draw attention to you when used.

Non-lethal: it incapacitates and won't deal lasting harm.

Elegant: it's flashy in use and can bypass simple defences.

Many: If you lose or use up the weapon, you have others to hand.

Unreliable: sometime it gets spectacular results, sometimes it fails spectacularly.

OUTFIT

All families can take outfits with one of these tags:

Utility: The outfit's unremarkable and simple, but can be easily repaired.

Camo: You blend in with the natural environment; if you stay still you'll be overlooked.

Regal: The outfit's flashy. Everyone who sees it recognises you and your family.

Potential tags for the outfits you pick up:

Sealed: Negates disadvantage stemming from a lack of air, ambient infection, poison or corrosion. Get +1 Armour when these deal harm to you.

Thermo: Negates disadvantage stemming from freezing or scorching temperatures. Get +1 Armour when these deal harm to you.

Hardened: Negates disadvantage stemming from radiation, hacking, psionics and stranger forces besides. Get +1 Armour when these deal harm to you.

Tough: Negates disadvantage stemming from physical impacts - hail, landslide, suppressing fire, etc. Get +1 Armour when these deal harm to you.

Mantle: High-tech defences provide 1 Armour to you and anyone within arm's reach when activated.

Mobile: Grapples, jump-jets, boosted muscles or similar make it much easier to get around wearing this gear.

Comms: You can send and receive audio messages, as well as limited digital data.

Powered: Motors in joints remove any encumbrance from the outfit, and let you carry heavy loads indefinitely.

Implanted: The outfit is hooked into your biology and can perform immediate diagnostics. Erase this to heal a single harm level.

GEAR

VEHICLES

Vehicles have three harm boxes:

- Dinged
- Twisted (get Disadvantage while using it)
- Busted (cannot move).

When a vehicle takes damage the driver and passengers may also suffer harm at the GM's discretion, though no more than the vehicle took. A damaged vehicle's environmental protection may be impaired, depending on the fiction. To repair, use the same rules as character healing.

All Vehicles have one of these tags:

Land/Water/Air/Space: The vehicle can travel freely in the indicated environment.

Potential tags to pick up:

Land/Water/Air/Space: Get another area of operation.

Mighty: Get advantage when you Forge a Path or Fiercely Assault with the vehicle (melee, brutal).

Swift: Get advantage when you Defuse by manoeuvring out of danger.

Canopy: The vehicle protects passengers from the outside environment. Without this, passengers must rely on their own Outfits.

Mount: It's alive and can follow simple commands.

Durable: The vehicle gets another Dinged box.

Med bay: Characters treated here don't need a surplus to get Professional Care.

Transport: The vehicle can hold up to 10 passengers.

Turret: A ranged weapon mounted on the vehicle gains the area tag and can be controlled by the pilot.

FOLLOWERS

Between a family acting in concert and a character acting alone there's a middle ground: sometimes a character gets help from a few family members or another small band. In these situations, you can treat the helpers as followers.

Followers have two important traits:

- Quality: from +1 for decent help to +3 for prodigious skill.
- Specialty: a phrase outlining their talents.

When your character is directly assisted by their followers, they increase the action's breadth or scope. Friendly scholars can help you research more quickly and comprehensively, but won't help you come to the right conclusions.

When combat-capable followers fight with you, add the area tag to your weapons as they help you to take on a large group.

When assistants act unsupervised outside their specialty, the GM should decide how well they do given the fiction as established.

When followers act unsupervised within their specialty, use this:

UNDER ORDERS

When you send a group of followers to perform a task within their specialty, roll +Quality. On a 10+ they do it, no problem. On a 7-9, it's done but choose one:

- They fell short in one particular aspect.
- There'll be unfortunate consequences.
- It cost them: their Quality drops by 1.

When a group hits Quality 0 they're no longer useful - they may be wounded, exhausted, or no longer interested in helping you.

To restore Quality, give a group of Followers Professional Care.

THE GM

AGENDA

Why are you here?

- To make the world seem real.
- To make their lives historic.
- To find out what happens.

ALWAYS SAY...

- What your Principles demand.
- What rules demand.
- What your prep demands.
- What honesty demands.

YOUR PRINCIPLES

How do you hit your Agenda?

- Create Pressures that Force Evolution.
- Evoke the past, think to the future.
- Fill the world with ruins.
- Begin and end with the fiction.
- Nothing is eternal.
- Be a fan of the characters.
- Apply consequences elsewhere.
- Be flexible with your responsibilities.
- Make your reactions look natural.
- Inform characters, not players.
- A Family is a group of individuals.

THINGS TO DO

- Draw maps, leave blanks.
- Write histories, and reference them.
- Name people, think who backs them.
- Ask questions and use the answers.
- Go around the table.
- Take breaks, now and then.
- Change up the pace from hours to months and back.

YOUR REACTIONS

Use these on a 6-, when everyone's looking to you to see what happens, or when the players give you a golden opportunity.

- Reveal an unwelcome truth.
- Put someone in a spot.
- Tell them the consequences and ask.
- Separate them.
- Take away their stuff.
- Capture them.
- Deal Harm (as established).
- Erase a Surplus.
- Add a Need.
- Turn their move on them.
- Give them recourse, solace or comfort.
- Offer an opportunity, with or without a cost.
- Show a remnant of the past, used in new ways.
- Show the consequences of past decisions.
- Show a downside to their playbook.
- Change the World.
- Highlight a weakness of their Family.
- Use a reaction from a faction or threat.
- After every reaction: "What do you do?"

DECISION-MAKING

When a question becomes really important to the game, it can be better not to just decide by fiat which way it'll go. In those cases, there are a few other ways you can do things:

Put it in your NPC's hands: consider, given the situation and who they are, what they would do.

Put it in the player's hands: work out a particular action they might do that'll decide how things go. If they do it, great! If they don't, too bad.

Put it in the story's hands: write it down and keep it in the back of your mind as you steer play towards resolving the question. Once this bit of the story's done, settle the question according to the path that's taken you here.

THE FIRST SESSION

1. DISCUSS TONE AND THEMES

Guide the group through discussing the sort of game they'd like to play. You have a voice in this, of course, but make sure nobody's feeling cowed or silenced during this discussion. At this point, start picking out fictional touchstones your setting can shoot for.

2. FAMILY CREATION

They'll build families, sketch out a world and decide relationships between them. During this step, you should be ready to suggest ideas that can spice up their contributions or add an edge that'll be helpful later. The Surpluses they pick tell you what their strengths are, while their Needs give you initial points of tension to push on. Start thinking of how those Needs might manifest.

Also start thinking about the threats and factions that might occupy this world - what sort of agendas do they have? What sort of powers and abilities, beyond the reach of the characters?

3. CHARACTER CREATION

Work through each character's Role Move, making edits to the map as required.

The roles they pick tell you what sort of story they want to have - at least initially. Start considering ways they can fulfill that role's story and feel like heroes doing it. Also help out during the backstory phase - it's crucial that the relationships between these characters are strong enough to overcome tensions between their families.

4. START PLAY

Start with the characters helping each other out to pursue their role missions, taking occasional breaks to show the family level and work out what things they're working on. Start laying foundations for the threats you thought up in step 2.

For each Family, make an NPC that fills a different Role to their player's characters. Use this NPC to show how the character relates to the rest of the family.

- Get comfortable with the basic moves; keep an eye out for their triggers.
- Write down every detail.
- Vary the time scale: sweeps of weeks and months give Families room to breathe, while zoomed-in minutes and hours give Characters a chance to shine.
- Turn the players' questions back on them.
- Firmly establish each Family's Surpluses and Needs, strengths and weaknesses.
- Ask about Surpluses to flesh out the world.
- Push Needs to bring urgency to the characters' lives.
- Give every character screen time with the other characters.
- Put interesting NPCs in the players' Families and hailing from other factions.
- Look for seeds you can use for future conflicts.
- Twist their ideas by splicing them with ones of your own.
- Give them chances to pursue their objectives, with a cost.

Make the first age pretty simple - a defined crisis that can be resolved within a few sessions. Then trigger the Turning of Ages, and move the clock forwards...

THE CAPITAL

BARTER GOODS PRESTIGE PROGRESS TRADE DEFENCES

In this world of ruins and wasteland, your Family forged something new, something grand: a city! No mere settlement, not just a fortress or a market by the crossroad: all that and so much more. You have raised the capital of your people.
